IOWA.

The people of Iowa Crrr are for the war. An immense meeting was held on Saturday, All parties vie with each other in their devotion to the stars and stripes. One company of 35 members has been organized, nader Capt. Mahanna, and forty names were carelled for a new company. About $6,000 has been raised for the war.

MICHIGAN.

A large and enthasiastic meeting was held delegate to the Charleston Convention, by the Mayer and others. The Light Artillary, a splendid company, immediately volunteered, as also the Coldwater Zouave Cadela. Coldwater is up to the mark. A house guard of 400 has also been formed. 42,000 for war purpose have also been raised.

At HILLADALE, a very large Union meeting was held on Saturday. The enthusians and exclusions was up to the war point. Capt. Lumbard offered his services to his country, and 60 men immediately volunteered to go with him, and the company is now full.

and a number of volunteers were added to the great army of Freedom. The Dwight company now numbers fifty of the very best young man in town. An old poldler of 1813 offered to enlist if they would take him.

At Orrawa on Saturday the wildlest excitement was manifested. Multitudes poured in from the country, and the city was throughd. The frish citizens formed a company, and an old man's company was also formed, composed of many who had seen service, and who are seady to go at their country's call.

At Manpova the most intense excitement prevails. Moselings are held almost daily. A muster roll was opened on the evening of the 19th, and it now has the names of 70 sturdy particles on it, and it, will have 100 on, and the company be ready for muching orders to-day. After the present company loave, a reserve sorps will be immediately formed. On Saturiery the citizens in a body proceeded to the office of the Mendota Tipse, a position secsion absets, edited by Parses Fish, and compalled it to holst the stars and at per. The Board of Supervisors will vote $10,000 to the Janilies of the volunteers.

At a meeting of the citizens of Galva on Saturlay nigut, $1,070 was subscribed for the benefit of the volunteers. The event above narrated seems to have stirred the Quaker blood. The Press says. 1

The excitement in this matter reached a point of inetainty yeaterday on receipt of intelligence from fishingors that a rehellious mot had insuited the defenders of the Republic, riolsted the large of heapitality and humanity, and than the particults soldiery of Masachusetts white peacefully marching to the relief of the capital.

On the previous evening (Thursday) more than acrenteen bundred unarmed vosunteers, residents of Philastelphis, had gone from the depot at Boost and Pine streets upon the same mission, mater command of an her ored and brave public servant—one who had fought long and wild upon a foreign soil. The remove at first in circulation confounded the Pennsylvania with the Musachusetts regiment, and thousands of citizens, whose friends had embarked for Bultmore, were raving and wildly gestjoulating in the streets.

When after despatches algrailed the safety of the Pennsylvania-s, and attributed th loss of His soil by to the Bay S at volunteers, indigna in was not a wint absted. Any heresi a or salotries, on the part of Masachusetts, were forgotion or wiped away. As in the attriggle of 17ff, the blood of her sons had been the first shelf, and that by massacre. All Philastophians took the Ploss to heart, and wished that the sacrides had first failed upon Pennsylvania; for 'joudated at this time involves mither regret nor dishonor, and that State is recoved which enlisted the dist marty.

While in Charleston I was thrown into content communication with the leadings optication communication with the leadings optication of the Southern Confederacy from all the seconds States, and having head superior facilities of information, I propose to lay from four distinct facile, which, as they were plainly and openly stated to me as a part of the programme of the new Confederacy, I is important fast the North abould know them, as forewarded, they will be forearmed.

Firstly, leff Davis, his consquitors and abettors, have laid down on shelp political chessboard, from the very outset, that the Capital of the nation, Weshington; as to be seized. For this purpose, that dangerous fellow and architection, Sen. McCulloch, was sent to Virginia, sitzs he had secomplished his infamous work in Texas.

It was assumed that if the conspirators could scize Harper's Ferry with the 25,000 stand of arms, and could gt hold of Fortreas Monroe, by a own de said, that Virginia would have to secded whether show which to or not. Thus sure of Virginia's strong points, they would march on Washington, fertify the heights that command the city, and force Mr. Lincoln and his act for Cabinet into an ignomisions flight. This done, they would first in easy matter to dictate terms to the representatives of the epithas and Stripes. This part of the programme was all armned, and I was permitted to see every detail of it. There was no pledge of seering, and therefore I have no healtstion in openly stating it.
